It also now has leatherette handle in black and brown colours and the fabric of the seat unit and carrycot now features a luxury quilted liner and doubled lined hood. They feel really secure. Although the Ickle Bubba Isofix was easy to install, it was a bit tricky positioning the seat to click it into place and it took a few goes to get it right. Yes, the infant seat handily uses the same frame as the lie-flat - you just remove the carrycot and replace with the seat. The handlebar has a great range of height and tilt options, which worked well for my tall (6ft) husband and I. You can buy it from, Boots, Amazon, Argos and Ickle Bubba. I was impressed with the size of the shopping basket, which was neat yet ample and easy to access even with the carrycot in place. Is it easy to interact with your baby in the Ickle Bubba Stomp V4? The travel system is very much in line with its mid-market competitors. The Cosatto Wow Complete Travel System, for example, has an RRP of £599.95, while the, while the Koochi Moderho costs £589.95. It would be a great first travel system for new parents who want all the kit they need for a reasonable price with a choice of colours. The leatherette handle and bumper bar cover (in tan with my package) complements the black and bronze nicely and feels soft to touch. I was impressed. Do the brakes work effectively? How does the Ickle Bubba Stomp V4 handle bumpy ground? Enjoy £20 off and add some colour to your adventures. Is it easy to unfold? The smaller front tyres have a locking system operated by push-down buttons on each side for going over uneven surfaces. Buy The Ickle Bubba Stomp V4: Boots, Amazon, Argos and Ickle Bubba Tested By: Currently on maternity leave, Sophie lives in Manchester with her husband Jamie and four-month-old son Jasper. Phew! Is the Ickle Bubba Stomp V4 easy to assemble? She's been trying this product out on walks, shopping trips and on the bus to and from baby classes. So, even though they're designed to last, you can enjoy extra piece of mind. It was really simple to put together, taking less than 20 minutes on my own. Is the pram easy to push? When the travel system arrived, I couldn't get over how much kit was included! The system overall looks quite neat. It's genuinely the easiest fold I've encountered. I was pleasantly surprised at how easy the pram is to steer, which I could easily do one-handed thanks to how light it is (6.5kg for the chassis and wheels). No, unfortunately the height of the pram combined with my height (5' 2") meant that unless I removed the bumper bar and tucked in the coverlet, I couldn't see my son in the pram when pushing him in a rear-facing, lie-flat position (as recommended when under six months old). from £249 view all The all-terrain Stomp V4 is just £499 with luxury fabrics and details. view all Travel light with the compact Moon travel system. Is the basket large and easy to access? Our pram came in the new Midnight Bronze colourway - the black contrasts nicely with the unusual bronze chassis and makes for a classy-looking pram. The Ickle Bubba Stomp V4 Special Edition builds on its predecessors with new colourways and an emphasis on luxury and comfort in its materials. This was easy to do using the clasp/Velcro system. read more It was great - we have previously used an Isofix with the Cosatto Hold car seat and loved the speed at which we could secure the seat. I didn't once catch it with my feet while walking, which has happened on prams I've used with a lower brake switch. Getting ready for your 12 week scan? It also doesn't have any hoops for attaching toys, which would be a bonus. Unfolding is even easier than folding - you lift the catch on the chassis and pull the handlebar up. Save upto £100 shop now The Discovery stroller has three bold new looks. This new version of the Stomp has had a face-lift. Once the seat is removed by clicking the two side buttons out and lifting the seat out, you slide down the two levers on either side of the chassis while holding the button in on the right-hand one, push, and it's folded. read more Ickle Bubba is committed to making positive differences that improve the lives of our customers and our people. 3 years) Type of buggy: All-in-1 travel system Weight: 6.5kg Fold: Concertina fold, with removable wheels Travel system compatible: Yes Total cost: £599 Born around six years ago, the Ickle Bubba brand aims to create luxurious and eye-catching prams and travel systems without the hefty price tag.
